Maria Weston Chapman

Esteemed Friend

Believing that a few autographs of the greatest man on Ireland, for such I hold Theobald Wolfe Tone to be, as the moral regenerator of his country, I wrote to him for a few;

he sent me a supply full of kindness & affection; that he was afraid of being too much exalted by answers to such letters but that he would not refuse me any request — Thou will find eleven of them inclosed. I kept me a few for myself & one or two more for friends; I can authenticate the genuineness of those little letters, & I doubt them will be found those amongst your Ju Satellites, who will be glad to possess themselves of them, & thus the "name" of Hobbard's Matter will forward the Cause of Freedom.

But besides this, his name is prefixed to the address from our meeting — may it arouse all your Ju Satellites to be up in the cause of Abolition!

The other matter which we from a remarkable man — Jno Stokes — he was a forerunner of "Father Mathew" in Ireland, & as fearless as he was — He now works indefatigably in the cause in England "a hand plucked from the burning" reclaiming thousands of his countrymen — The accompanying circulars are those notices intended to be scattered amongst the Bazaar visitors, but not put with them for fear of exciting the ire of your pro-slavery Episcopalians —

Three for the cause of the Slave

The Letter & Ticket at the end of this, were doubtless one of Father Smithers' early Inserts — It is a beautiful Specimen —
